DISCOVER THE GREAT OUTDOORS

Enjoying a walk on the Greenway

CARLINGFORD LOUGH GREENWAY

Carlingford Marina to Omeath, Co. Louth

Enjoy a leisurely walk or cycle on the beautiful 7km greenway between Carlingford and Omeath. The greenway winds along the shoreline and was built mostly along the old railway line.

You will be rewarded with wonderful panoramic views of the lough, the mountains of Mourne and Slieve Foye Mountain, while you pass fields full of grazing sheep and old level crossings and bridges, with lots of trees, wildflowers and birds to be seen along the way. Bike hire is available locally.

BOYNE VALLEY CAMINO

A self-guided, 25km looped walk which forms part of the Celtic Camino series. The walk goes from Drogheda along the Boyne, through Townley Hall woods, via Mellifont Abbey and Oldbridge House, through Tullyallen village, along the Boyne Canal and returns to Drogheda along the Boyneside Trail. Collect stamps en route created by local artists to add to your official Camino Passport. Download a Map & Guide from our website or pick up a copy from the Drogheda Tourist Office.

HILLWALKING

Majestic Slieve Foye and the Cooley Mountains are a haven for hikers and hillwalkers. Here you will walk in the Land of Legends, famed for stories of the Celtic warrior Cúchulainn, the Cattle Raid of Cooley and tales of the great giant Fionn Mac Cumhaill.

There are a number of National Loop walks in the region, suitable for different levels of fitness, which reward you with spectacular views over Dundalk Bay and Carlingford Lough. (No dogs allowed on the mountains)

STEPHENSTOWN POND

Knockbridge, Dundalk

This nature park, with lakeside walkways and a wide array of wildlife, provides an ideal location for a family day out.

Have fun in the new state of the art children's playground, enjoy a picnic while you feed the wildlife, or simply enjoy the walkways (Sli Na Slainte Route).

Children can learn about the flora, fauna and wildlife from the educational interpretative boards as they walk round the nature park. Also located on the site is a 19th century cottage, once the home of Agnes Burns/Galt, sister of Scotland's National Poet, Robert Burns.

COILLTE FOREST PARKS

Connect with nature and enjoy a walk through leafy woodland trails at Ravensdale Forest or Townley Hall Woods, or take in the spectacular views of Carlingford Lough from the top of Slieve Foye Woods. Why not pack a picnic to enjoy on your day out too.

LOUTH'S COASTLINE

Louth may be the 'Wee County' but it has over 70km of breath taking coastline to explore.

*Blue Flag beaches at Port,

Clogherhead or Templetown (*awarded annually). Discover the charming coastal villages of Clogherhead, Annagassan, Blackrock, Greenore, Carlingford and Omeath. If you enjoy Bird Watching don't miss Dundalk Bay, one of the most important places in Ireland for migratory coastal waterfowl.

SEA LOUTH – SCENIC SEAFOOD TRAIL

Pick up your passport and start exploring the 'sea louth' Scenic Seafood Trail - visit the piers and see where the seafood producers land their catch, eat the finest fresh seafood in our local restaurants and admire the stunning coastal views along the way. There is so much to see, eat & admire on your trip to County Louth. Visit www.sealouth.ie to find out more!

GOLF

Enjoy a round of golf at one of Louth's superb parkland golf courses located at Ardee and Blackrock, or choose one of the stunning coastal links courses located at Greenore, Seapoint and Baltray.

Medieval Carlingford

ENJOY OUR TOWNS & VILLAGES

CARLINGFORD

To the north of County Louth is the beautiful Cooley Peninsula and the medieval town of Carlingford. The area boasts great outdoor and water-based pursuits, adventure activities, rich heritage and breath taking scenery. It is also renowned for legendary tales of the epic Táin Bo Culainge (Cattle Raid of Cooley). Take a stroll around the harbour or spend time discovering the many historic buildings, quaint shops, bars, restaurants, and maybe even taste the famous Carlingford Oysters. Learn more about Carlingford's medieval past on a guided tour departing from Carlingford Tourist Office.

GREENORE

The Victorian Railway Village of Greenore is an Architectural Conservation Area. Greenore Co-Op houses a miniature Railway & Maritime Museum and a Victorian Tea Room. See the Carlingford Lough Ferry as it sails between Greenore beneath the Cooley Mountains and Greencastle at the foot of the Mourne. A trip saves over 30 miles and over an hour on the road, while enjoying stunning scenery and fresh air!

DUNDALK

Dundalk is rich in heritage, with many of the famous Irish legends based in the wonderful landscape around here. Dundalk is known for its vibrant nightlife and great social scene. Discover the mix of high street and artisan stores, restaurants, bars and coffee shops. Relax by the water fountains at the piazza style Market Square, or enjoy a walking tour of the wonderful SEEK urban art murals dotted around the town, highlighting aspects of its culture, history and heritage.

BLACKROCK

This very special seaside village lies on the shores of Dundalk Bay. Explore its beautiful beaches and wetlands, tranquil coves and rock pools, and enjoy its many artisan shops, cafes and award winning restaurants. Take a stroll along the charming promenade, enjoy an ice cream while taking time out to sit and delight in the spectacular views of the bay and the Cooley Peninsula.

ANNAGASSAN

Annagassan was once the site of a significant Viking Longphort built in 841 AD known as Linn Duachail. Today, Annagassan is a quiet seaside village and harbour with wonderful views from the beach overlooking Dundalk Bay, the Cooley Peninsula and Mourne Mountains.

ARDEE

Midway between Drogheda and Dundalk is the town of Ardee on the banks of the River Dee which Irish Mythology states as the site of the epic battle between warriors Cúchulainn and Ferdia. Ardee Castle, the largest fortified medieval tower-house in Ireland and Hatch's Castle, built in the 1400's, are both situated on Ardee's Main Street.

CLOGHERHEAD

The beautiful blue flag beach at Clogherhead has lovely views and miles of sand. The headland is the only high, rocky headland on the east coast between the Mourne and Howth in County Dublin. At Port Oriel grey seals are often seen in the harbour and black guillemots nest in special 'burrows' in the harbour wall.

DROGHEDA

Drogheda is the gateway to the world famous Boyne Valley region. Call into the Tourist Office, located in the Tholsel, and discover all there is to do and see in the area with the 'Drogheda, Gateway to the Boyne Valley' tourist exhibition. While Drogheda is a large town, it has a wealth of unique attractions within walking distance of each other. Its quiet lanes feed into bustling thoroughfares and shopping areas, with an abundance of restaurants, cafés, bars and nightlife to enjoy.
